

Recent Graduate Survey (2022-2023)

Holy Family University's Office of Institutional Effectiveness*

Results are based on respondents to Holy Family University's Recent Graduate Survey. The Recent Graduate Survey was administered during the Spring 2023 semester to those Holy Family University students who graduated within the three prior years. In total, 1,663 graduates received an invitation to the Recent Graduate Survey. The following tables are based on the 102 responses received from this population.<sup>1</sup>

Job Placement Rates

91.7% of graduates are currently working for pay, with an average salary of $74,140.

Percentage of Respondents that responded their job as the following descriptions:

Position full-time (35 hours or more per week):	89.6%
Duties on this job require the knowledge/skill/abilities gained from a college degree:	89.6%
My employer require a college degree for consideration for your employment in this job:	86.6%
Job is related to my field(s) of study:	91.0%
Job is related to my desired career path:	97.0%

Continuing Education

15.3% of graduates are currently taking courses at a college or university.

Level of Degree Program:

Second bachelor's degree:	8.3%
Master's degree:	66.7%
Doctoral degree:	12.5%
Other degree or certificate:	12.5%

---

*Holy Family University's Office of Institutional Effectiveness is comprised of Mr. Mark Green, Associate Vice President of Institutional Effectiveness, Information Technology, and Innovation, Dr. Bernice Purcell, Director of University Assessment, and Dr. Colin Emrich, Senior Data Analyst. For questions regarding the contents of this document, please contact Dr. Emrich at cemrich@holyfamily.edu.

<sup>1</sup>This constitutes a 6.1% response rate to the Recent Graduate Survey.