

Study Abroad

HOLY FAMILY UNIVERSITY IN

BARCELONA

MAY 15 - JUNE 5, 2027

Join Holy Family University for an unforgettable educational journey to Spain from May 15 through June 5, 2027. This immersive study abroad experience invites students to explore the rich history, cultural identity, and vibrant heritage of Catalonia while earning six academic credits through two 3-credit courses. Through hands-on experiential learning, interactive language practice, and site-specific exploration, students will gain a deeper understanding of how history, architecture, traditions, and everyday life continue to shape Catalan culture. Participants will also develop practical skills and confidence for navigating the region independently.

Program Highlights

- Explore the dynamic city of Barcelona
- Enjoy guided excursions to Costa Brava, Montserrat and Girona
- Take part in a scenic catamaran tour along the Mediterranean coast
- Earn 6 academic credits while studying abroad

This unique program combines academic learning with cultural discovery, offering students a transformative international experience that extends far beyond the classroom.

Cost Breakdown:

Six-credit course: $3,270

Expected flight cost: $1,200

Total Cost: ~$4,670

Question?

Contact Dr. Jenai Grigg
at jgrigg@holyfamily.edu or visit HFH225

Reserve your seat today!

Holy Family
UNIVERSITY