

MANDATORY STUDY HALL POLICY FOR ALL AT-RISK STUDENT-ATHLETES

1. All incoming first-year student-athletes, student-athletes who have a cumulative GPA below 2.2, and academically ineligible student-athletes are required to do a minimum of two (2) hours of study hall per week. Student-athletes will be notified as to when study hall begins each semester.
 - a. Student-athletes with a cumulative GPA below 2.2 and/or academically ineligible student-athletes are required to meet with the Student Athlete Success Coach once a month. These meetings will be scheduled at the start of the semester.
2. Student-athletes are strongly encouraged to satisfy 1 of the 2 required study hall hours by scheduling an appointment with Tiger Tutoring which is located in the library second floor. To receive study hall credit, student-athletes must notify the Student Athlete Success Coach at the beginning of the week that they will utilize Tiger Tutoring. In addition, student-athletes are responsible for providing verification of any weekly study hall hours completed at Tiger Tutoring or with an authorized tutor (such as with a professor during office hours).
 - a. Student-athletes may select which subject they will schedule with the Tiger Tutoring, however, the Student Athlete Success Coach may also work with each student-athlete as needed to identify the subject (or subjects) for which they will schedule with the Tiger Tutoring.
 - b. To schedule an appointment with Tiger Tutoring , go to www.holyfamily.mywconline.com and register to start using the online scheduling calendar. You may also visit Tiger Tutoring in person on the 2nd floor of the library or call at 267-341-3326.
3. If you cannot complete the required number of weekly study hall hours because of extenuating circumstances (e.g., sickness, or a family emergency) you must notify the Student Athlete Success Coach (or designee) in advance, so that alternative arrangements can be made.

4. Study hall will take place in a location designated by the Office of Student Success. The Office of Student Success will designate weekly hours for study hall. You must complete study hall during the designated hours unless prior approval has been given for alternative arrangements.
5. You must use the study hall solely for the purpose of studying, doing homework, studying and/or working on classroom assignments. Do not come to study hall without any class-related work to do.
6. No texting, phone calls, or using computers for anything other than class-related is permitted. No food is allowed in the study hall room.
7. You are required to sign in with the Student Athlete Success Coach who will have a study hall logbook when you arrive. You must sign in when you arrive and sign out when you are finished.
8. You must plan to do a minimum of 30 minutes when arriving for study hall. You will not receive credit for any time less than 30 minutes (for example, no credit for staying for 10 minutes and then leaving).
9. A student-athlete may be required to do additional study hall hours at the discretion of the Student Athlete Success Coach and/or the student-athlete's coach. Coaches may also arrange "team" study halls in consultation with the Office of Student Success.

A first-time violation of the study hall policy will result in a warning. Repeated violations of the study hall policy without a valid excuse or absent extenuating circumstances may result in disciplinary action, including but not limited to: additional required hours, suspensions from practice and/or game suspensions.
