Recipes From Home

There’s many ways that you can let your student know that they are missed, and we’re sure they miss you, too! Here’s one way to help him or her fight off those bouts of homesickness.

Is there a special recipe that your student just can’t live without? Send it to Dining Services! You can either send it by mail at our campus address or email it to us - and we’ll do the rest. We want your student to know who their special gift is from, so we will display your name on the menu. Just remember to include your student’s name, as well as your own name.

Think about how much it would mean to your son, daughter, or favorite student!
